

LOOK AT THIS!
5,966!
IT IS THE NUMBER OF "WANTS" PRINTED SUNDAY, AND IT IS A LARGER NUMBER OF ADVERTISEMENTS THAN ANY OTHER NEWSPAPER EVER PUBLISHED.

NEW YORK, TUESDAY, APRIL 24, 1888.

LOOK AT THIS!
5,966!
IT IS THE NUMBER OF "WANTS"
PRINTED SUNDAY, AND IT IS A LARGER NUMBER OF ADVERTISEMENTS THAN
ANY OTHER NEWSPAPER EVER PUBLISHED.

PRICE ONE CENT.

LAST EDITION.

JOHN L. ARRIVES.

Boston's Boss Slugger Returns to Old Boston City.

Welcomed by a Host of Friends on Three Tugboats.

He is Recognized on the Bridge of the Steamer as She Passes Boston Light—The Evening World's Reporter the First Man to Welcome Him Back—He Expects Mitchell, Kilrain and Smith Will Be Here Soon, and Then There Will Be Music—The Champion on the Fight with Mitchell and the Squaresness Thereof—He Brings with Him a Bantam Fighter Named Burns Who Is Said to Be a "Good 'Un."

(SPECIAL TO THE WORLD.)
HULL, Mass., April 24.—John L. Sullivan, champion pugilist of the world, has returned to his native sphere. Not one of the many hundreds of fellow-passengers saw the outlines of our brave coast with more pleasure than did the big fellow, who has returned with a wealth of English shiners.

For two days past there have been a number of John L.'s friends waiting anxiously for his return.

The big ocean steamer Catalonia, with her wealth of "new life" for our new hives, has been watched for patiently since last Monday morning.

No one has watched more zealously than did the Government Signal Telegraph operator on the Promontory at Hull.

To day when the sun rose from his ocean bed in all his glory, no picture of the big, black monster that connect the two contents was seen.

About 7 o'clock there came within the horizon something that caught the watchers' eye.

The object had all the outlines of one of the big "Chambers." The vessel was seen to sail to seaward and could not at that distance be plainly made out.

On she came, steaming for the mouth of Boston's harbor. Every minute her outlines became more distinct, until there was no possibility of mistake. It was the longed-for Catalonia.

The day was beautiful for the newcomers to arrive at our harbor. Just such a day as the host of friends of the champion pugilist desired on which to extend their greeting.

They had been astir early, and before eight o'clock the tug Wesley A. Gove, John H.
Clark and Elsie with a freight of happy sports, pride of music and Sullivan's friends, and loaded with good things, steamed away from their docks along the harbor front.

There was Manager Phillips, full of expectancy; general Mitchell, the actor
William H. Daly, Jr.; M. T. Clark, one
of Boston's merchants; Billy Hogan,
who has always clung to Boston's pugilist; Dan Gill, boxer by intuition; Jim Mealy and his brother Charlie, Tommy Kelley, the light-weight; ex-representative John J.
Ward, big Frank Magallon, Jimmie
Calvin, Joe Lannon, heavyweight; Jim Bent, North End's leading
sporting man; Dr. O'Connell, J. A. St. John, Gaudin's boxer; Peter McCoy, Larry Kennedy, handsome Dan Murphy, Patsy Kerigan,
the hero of many fights; Paddy Duffy,
so lately made a benefactor, and a host of others, all well known in their lines of business.

The Catalonia brightened under the beauties of the April morning. She approached rapidly, and shortly before 8 o'clock came in hull of her friends.

The tug Wesley A. Gove, John H. Clark and Elsie with a freight of happy sports,
pride of music and Sullivan's friends, and
loaded with good things, steamed away from
their docks along the harbor front.

There was Manager Phillips, full of ex-
pectancy; general Mitchell, the actor
William H. Daly, Jr.; M. T. Clark, one
of Boston's merchants; Billy Hogan,
who has always clung to Boston's pugilist;
Dan Gill, boxer by intuition; Jim Mealy and
his brother Charlie, Tommy Kelley, the
light-weight; ex-representative John J.
Ward, big Frank Magallon, Jimmie
Calvin, Joe Lannon, heavy-
weight; Jim Bent, North End's leading
sporting man; Dr. O'Connell, J. A. St. John,
Gaudin's boxer; Peter McCoy, Larry Ken-
nedy, handsome Dan Murphy, Patsy Kerigan,
the hero of many fights; Paddy Duffy,
so lately made a benefactor, and a host of others, all well known in their lines of business.

The Catalonia brightened under the beau-
ties of the April morning. She approached
rapidly, and shortly before 8 o'clock came in
hull of her friends.

The tug Wesley A. Gove, John H. Clark
and Elsie with a freight of happy sports,
pride of music and Sullivan's friends, and
loaded with good things, steamed away from
their docks along the harbor front.

There was Manager Phillips, full of ex-
pectancy; general Mitchell, the actor
William H. Daly, Jr.; M. T. Clark, one
of Boston's merchants; Billy Hogan,
who has always clung to Boston's pugilist;
Dan Gill, boxer by intuition; Jim Mealy and
his brother Charlie, Tommy Kelley, the
light-weight; ex-representative John J.
Ward, big Frank Magallon, Jimmie
Calvin, Joe Lannon, heavy-
weight; Jim Bent, North End's leading
sporting man; Dr. O'Connell, J. A. St. John,
Gaudin's boxer; Peter McCoy, Larry Ken-
nedy, handsome Dan Murphy, Patsy Kerigan,
the hero of many fights; Paddy Duffy,
so lately made a benefactor, and a host of others, all well known in their lines of business.

The Catalonia brightened under the beau-
ties of the April morning. She approached
rapidly, and shortly before 8 o'clock came in
hull of her friends.

The tug Wesley A. Gove, John H. Clark
and Elsie with a freight of happy sports,
pride of music and Sullivan's friends, and
loaded with good things, steamed away from
their docks along the harbor front.

There was Manager Phillips, full of ex-
pectancy; general Mitchell, the actor
William H. Daly, Jr.; M. T. Clark, one
of Boston's merchants; Billy Hogan,
who has always clung to Boston's pugilist;
Dan Gill, boxer by intuition; Jim Mealy and
his brother Charlie, Tommy Kelley, the
light-weight; ex-representative John J.
Ward, big Frank Magallon, Jimmie
Calvin, Joe Lannon, heavy-
weight; Jim Bent, North End's leading
sporting man; Dr. O'Connell, J. A. St. John,
Gaudin's boxer; Peter McCoy, Larry Ken-
nedy, handsome Dan Murphy, Patsy Kerigan,
the hero of many fights; Paddy Duffy,
so lately made a benefactor, and a host of others, all well known in their lines of business.

The Catalonia brightened under the beau-
ties of the April morning. She approached
rapidly, and shortly before 8 o'clock came in
hull of her friends.

The tug Wesley A. Gove, John H. Clark
and Elsie with a freight of happy sports,
pride of music and Sullivan's friends, and
loaded with good things, steamed away from
their docks along the harbor front.

There was Manager Phillips, full of ex-
pectancy; general Mitchell, the actor
William H. Daly, Jr.; M. T. Clark, one
of Boston's merchants; Billy Hogan,
who has always clung to Boston's pugilist;
Dan Gill, boxer by intuition; Jim Mealy and
his brother Charlie, Tommy Kelley, the
light-weight; ex-representative John J.
Ward, big Frank Magallon, Jimmie
Calvin, Joe Lannon, heavy-
weight; Jim Bent, North End's leading
sporting man; Dr. O'Connell, J. A. St. John,
Gaudin's boxer; Peter McCoy, Larry Ken-
nedy, handsome Dan Murphy, Patsy Kerigan,
the hero of many fights; Paddy Duffy,
so lately made a benefactor, and a host of others, all well known in their lines of business.

The Catalonia brightened under the beau-
ties of the April morning. She approached
rapidly, and shortly before 8 o'clock came in
hull of her friends.

The tug Wesley A. Gove, John H. Clark
and Elsie with a freight of happy sports,
pride of music and Sullivan's friends, and
loaded with good things, steamed away from
their docks along the harbor front.

HOME FROM A FOREIGN SHORE.
Boston Once More Takes Her Hero to Her Heart, and John L. Is Happy.

while abroad. He has seen all there was to see and is glad to get back to his native land.

John L. was sorry for the disappointment of his friends, and the day of the Catalonia and was anxious to see them as they were to see him.

John has hosts of friends in this country.
Every man who was John's friend before he left Boston has a warm place for him in his heart. He will be dined and welcomed right royally, and about the middle of May lovers of the many art are to have the pleasure of seeing him in a friendly bout with some of the heavy-weights.

He was soon transferred from the steamer, and as he landed among his cheering friends the hand played, and the boats returned to the city, where they landed about 9 o'clock.

During all the excitement the thousand people on the big steamer forgot the shore in their reception, and the tug Wesley A. Gove, John H. Clark and Elsie with a freight of happy sports, pride of music and Sullivan's friends, and loaded with good things, steamed away from their docks along the harbor front.

There was Manager Phillips, full of ex-
pectancy; general Mitchell, the actor
William H. Daly, Jr.; M. T. Clark, one
of Boston's merchants; Billy Hogan,
who has always clung to Boston's pugilist;
Dan Gill, boxer by intuition; Jim Mealy and
his brother Charlie, Tommy Kelley, the
light-weight; ex-representative John J.
Ward, big Frank Magallon, Jimmie
Calvin, Joe Lannon, heavy-
weight; Jim Bent, North End's leading
sporting man; Dr. O'Connell, J. A. St. John,
Gaudin's boxer; Peter McCoy, Larry Ken-
nedy, handsome Dan Murphy, Patsy Kerigan,
the hero of many fights; Paddy Duffy,
so lately made a benefactor, and a host of others, all well known in their lines of business.

The Catalonia brightened under the beau-
ties of the April morning. She approached
rapidly, and shortly before 8 o'clock came in
hull of her friends.

The tug Wesley A. Gove, John H. Clark
and Elsie with a freight of happy sports,
pride of music and Sullivan's friends, and
loaded with good things, steamed away from
their docks along the harbor front.

There was Manager Phillips, full of ex-
pectancy; general Mitchell, the actor
William H. Daly, Jr.; M. T. Clark, one
of Boston's merchants; Billy Hogan,
who has always clung to Boston's pugilist;
Dan Gill, boxer by intuition; Jim Mealy and
his brother Charlie, Tommy Kelley, the
light-weight; ex-representative John J.
Ward, big Frank Magallon, Jimmie
Calvin, Joe Lannon, heavy-
weight; Jim Bent, North End's leading
sporting man; Dr. O'Connell, J. A. St. John,
Gaudin's boxer; Peter McCoy, Larry Ken-
nedy, handsome Dan Murphy, Patsy Kerigan,
the hero of many fights; Paddy Duffy,
so lately made a benefactor, and a host of others, all well known in their lines of business.

The Catalonia brightened under the beau-
ties of the April morning. She approached
rapidly, and shortly before 8 o'clock came in
hull of her friends.

The tug Wesley A. Gove, John H. Clark
and Elsie with a freight of happy sports,
pride of music and Sullivan's friends, and
loaded with good things, steamed away from
their docks along the harbor front.

There was Manager Phillips, full of ex-
pectancy; general Mitchell, the actor
William H. Daly, Jr.; M. T. Clark, one
of Boston's merchants; Billy Hogan,
who has always clung to Boston's pugilist;
Dan Gill, boxer by intuition; Jim Mealy and
his brother Charlie, Tommy Kelley, the
light-weight; ex-representative John J.
Ward, big Frank Magallon, Jimmie
Calvin, Joe Lannon, heavy-
weight; Jim Bent, North End's leading
sporting man; Dr. O'Connell, J. A. St. John,
Gaudin's boxer; Peter McCoy, Larry Ken-
nedy, handsome Dan Murphy, Patsy Kerigan,
the hero of many fights; Paddy Duffy,
so lately made a benefactor, and a host of others, all well known in their lines of business.

The Catalonia brightened under the beau-
ties of the April morning. She approached
rapidly, and shortly before 8 o'clock came in
hull of her friends.

The tug Wesley A. Gove, John H. Clark
and Elsie with a freight of happy sports,
pride of music and Sullivan's friends, and
loaded with good things, steamed away from
their docks along the harbor front.

There was Manager Phillips, full of ex-
pectancy; general Mitchell, the actor
William H. Daly, Jr.; M. T. Clark, one
of Boston's merchants; Billy Hogan,
who has always clung to Boston's pugilist;
Dan Gill, boxer by intuition; Jim Mealy and
his brother Charlie, Tommy Kelley, the
light-weight; ex-representative John J.
Ward, big Frank Magallon, Jimmie
Calvin, Joe Lannon, heavy-
weight; Jim Bent, North End's leading
sporting man; Dr. O'Connell, J. A. St. John,
Gaudin's boxer; Peter McCoy, Larry Ken-
nedy, handsome Dan Murphy, Patsy Kerigan,
the hero of many fights; Paddy Duffy,
so lately made a benefactor, and a host of others, all well known in their lines of business.

The Catalonia brightened under the beau-
ties of the April morning. She approached
rapidly, and shortly before 8 o'clock came in
hull of her friends.

The tug Wesley A. Gove, John H. Clark
and Elsie with a freight of happy sports,
pride of music and Sullivan's friends, and
loaded with good things, steamed away from
their docks along the harbor front.

There was Manager Phillips, full of ex-
pectancy; general Mitchell, the actor
William H. Daly, Jr.; M. T. Clark, one
of Boston's merchants; Billy Hogan,
who has always clung to Boston's pugilist;
Dan Gill, boxer by intuition; Jim Mealy and
his brother Charlie, Tommy Kelley, the
light-weight; ex-representative John J.
Ward, big Frank Magallon, Jimmie
Calvin, Joe Lannon, heavy-
weight; Jim Bent, North End's leading
sporting man; Dr. O'Connell, J. A. St. John,
Gaudin's boxer; Peter McCoy, Larry Ken-
nedy, handsome Dan Murphy, Patsy Kerigan,
the hero of many fights; Paddy Duffy,
so lately made a benefactor, and a host of others, all well known in their lines of business.

The Catalonia brightened under the beau-
ties of the April morning. She approached
rapidly, and shortly before 8 o'clock came in
hull of her friends.

The tug Wesley A. Gove, John H. Clark
and Elsie with a freight of happy sports,
pride of music and Sullivan's friends, and
loaded with good things, steamed away from
their docks along the harbor front.

There was Manager Phillips, full of ex-
pectancy; general Mitchell, the actor
William H. Daly, Jr.; M. T. Clark, one
of Boston's merchants; Billy Hogan,
who has always clung to Boston's pugilist;
Dan Gill, boxer by intuition; Jim Mealy and
his brother Charlie, Tommy Kelley, the
light-weight; ex-representative John J.
Ward, big Frank Magallon, Jimmie
Calvin, Joe Lannon, heavy-
weight; Jim Bent, North End's leading
sporting man; Dr. O'Connell, J. A. St. John,
Gaudin's boxer; Peter McCoy, Larry Ken-
nedy, handsome Dan Murphy, Patsy Kerigan,
the hero of many fights; Paddy Duffy,
so lately made a benefactor, and a host of others, all well known in their lines of business.

The Catalonia brightened under the beau-
ties of the April morning. She approached
rapidly, and shortly before 8 o'clock came in
hull of her friends.

The tug Wesley A. Gove, John H. Clark
and Elsie with a freight of happy sports,
pride of music and Sullivan's friends, and
loaded with good things, steamed away from
their docks along the harbor front.

There was Manager Phillips, full of ex-
pectancy; general Mitchell, the actor
William H. Daly, Jr.; M. T. Clark, one
of Boston's merchants; Billy Hogan,
who has always clung to Boston's pugilist;
Dan Gill, boxer by intuition; Jim Mealy and
his brother Charlie, Tommy Kelley, the
light-weight; ex-representative John J.
Ward, big Frank Magallon, Jimmie
Calvin, Joe Lannon, heavy-
weight; Jim Bent, North End's leading
sporting man; Dr. O'Connell, J. A. St. John,
Gaudin's boxer; Peter McCoy, Larry Ken-
nedy, handsome Dan Murphy, Patsy Kerigan,
the hero of many fights; Paddy Duffy,
so lately made a benefactor, and a host of others, all well known in their lines of business.

The Catalonia brightened under the beau-
ties of the April morning. She approached
rapidly, and shortly before 8 o'clock came in
hull of her friends.

The tug Wesley A. Gove, John H. Clark
and Elsie with a freight of happy sports,
pride of music and Sullivan's friends, and
loaded with good things, steamed away from
their docks along the harbor front.

There was Manager Phillips, full of ex-
pectancy; general Mitchell, the actor
William H. Daly, Jr.; M. T. Clark, one
of Boston's merchants; Billy Hogan,
who has always clung to Boston's pugilist;
Dan Gill, boxer by intuition; Jim Mealy and
his brother Charlie, Tommy Kelley, the
light-weight; ex-representative John J.
Ward, big Frank Magallon, Jimmie
Calvin, Joe Lannon, heavy-
weight; Jim Bent, North End's leading
sporting man; Dr. O'Connell, J. A. St. John,
Gaudin's boxer; Peter McCoy, Larry Ken-
nedy, handsome Dan Murphy, Patsy Kerigan,
the hero of many fights; Paddy Duffy,
so lately made a benefactor, and a host of others, all well known in their lines of business.

The Catalonia brightened under the beau-
ties of the April morning. She approached
rapidly, and shortly before 8 o'clock came in
hull of her friends.

NEITHER SIDE WEAKENS.

THE BREWERS' LOCKOUT AND THE MEN'S BOYCOTT STILL IN FULL FORCE.

The Brewers' Association Compiling Reports Showing the Condition of Affairs in the Breweries—The Saloon-keepers Said to be Combining Against the Sale of Pool Beer—To-Day's Developments.

Reports concerning the brewers' lockout continue to be conflicting. The situation is this: The union men are locked out and organized labor is engaged in applying the boycott to bring the boss brewers to terms, while on the other hand the bosses claim that the trouble is virtually over as far as they are concerned; their breweries are in operation and the boycott is not effective enough to seriously injure any pool brewer.

At the Brewers' Exchange it was reported that the Enterprise Brewing Company, of Newark, had repudiated the agreement with the unions since the brewery passed into new hands.

The actual condition of affairs in the breweries is indicated by the reports thus far received, as follows:

No. employed before lockout.	Old hands. hands, hands.	New hands. hands, hands.
48	17	24
192	105	155
21	2	24
32	7	29

Secretary Seifert said that reports from the other breweries would indicate a similar condition of things as that above given.

Handbills were distributed this morning calling a meeting of saloon-keepers for this evening at 8 o'clock at Webster Hall for the purpose of discussing the brewers' troubles and endeavoring to bring about a settlement. One of the real purposes of the meeting is said to be the formation of an association of saloon-keepers who are not controlled by the brewers' pool.

At Clarendon Hall the men assembled in large force again to-day.

The boys' Union No. 37 sent word that its members would not drink pool beer.

The boycott was reported by committees to be very effective and in consequence many saloon-keepers were hanging their beer from pool to non-pool.

John Schumler, aged nineteen years, a striking brewer, was fined $10 in the Jefferson Police Court this morning.

Henry L. Muford, of Brooklyn, who has sued Jane Nerby for $10,000 for breach of promise of marriage, said this morning to an EVENING WORLD reporter: "I am a retired drug merchant, having given up business a short time ago after conducting it for over twenty years."

"I first met Miss Nerby in February of the present year. She advertised in a matrimonial paper for a husband and I answered it."

"One Sunday I went to church. When I returned to my home I found her there with a letter which she said would give me back my freedom. She had made all arrangements for the wedding, and she was to take place Friday of the present year."

"As I did not propose to her, I didn't see why she should want to relieve me of any money. When I suggested that we postpone the wedding she declined, at the same time saying she had received a communication from her deceased husband commanding her to marry me."

Mr. Muford further said that he brought the suit merely to show that the sterner sex's affections were not to be trifled with in safety.

On Strike in Yonkers.
YONKERS, April 24.—The men and boys employed as stokers in E. M. Connet's factory in this city struck to-day on account of a reduction in wages.

The other hands in the factory are in sympathy with the strikers, and it is thought that a general strike among the hands under the trouble is at hand.

Talked of by Workmen.
Delegate Wackenhelm, of the Gotham Association of Knife-cutters, presided at the meeting of the Clothing Trades Section, for the reason that they are interested parties in the differences between the Washington Association and the Sawworkers' Protective Union.

The grievance complained of by the Sawworkers'
Protective Union against the Washington Association of Knife-cutters is that the latter have refused to recognize the cards of the former, his being submitted to the Grievance Committee of the Clothing Trades Section.

The United Clothing Cutters entered a protest last night against the submission of the Benevolent and Protective Association of Garment Cutters to the Grievance Committee of the Clothing Trades Section, on the ground that the members composing it were expelled from the first mentioned organization.

The Quotations.
Cable, Apr. 24.—The following are the quotations
for the day:

Open.	High.	Low.	Close.
Canada Southern	107 1/2	107 1/2	107 1/2
Can. Pac.	107 1/2	107 1/2	107 1/2
Chicago & Northw.	107 1/2	107 1/2	107 1/2
Ill. & Mich.	107 1/2	107 1/2	107 1/2
Ind. & Ohio	107 1/2	107 1/2	107 1/2
Mich. & Ind.	107 1/2	107 1/2	107 1/2
N. Y. & N. J.	107 1/2	107 1/2	107 1/2
Penn. & Del.	107 1/2	107 1/2	107 1/2
R.R. & N.Y.	107 1/2	107 1/2	107 1/2
St. Louis & S.W.	107 1/2	107 1/2	107 1/2
Union Pac.	107 1/2	107 1/2	107 1/2
W. Va. & O.	107 1/2	107 1/2	107 1/2
Yonkers & N.Y.	107 1/2	107 1/2	107 1/2

"RED" LEARY'S SINGULAR FATE.

Witnesses Say that Billy Train Killed the Bank Burglar by Accident.

It was a singular fate that overtook John Leary, better known to doubtful fame as "Red" Leary, last night.

He was a bank burglar for the best years of his life, and was connected with the bold robbery of the Northampton Bank, in which securities worth three-quarters of a million were taken, and in the robbery of the Manhattan Savings Bank of over $2,000,000 worth of bonds.

In such work there is constant danger of death at the hands of the guardians of the treasure, but "Red" Leary passed through all his exploits without a scratch, escaped imprisonment in this country entirely, grew infirm through an eye affection which rendered him practically blind for six or eight years, and finally came to his death through the playful freak of a drunken companion.

According to Mrs. Cornelia Perry, E. Bennet and Billy Train, Billy Train threw a brick at Leary in fun. When he saw that the brick would hit Leary he shouted: "Oh, my God! Look out!"

The brick broke Leary's skull and he died in the New York Hospital last evening.

Train was arrested this morning. Pat J. Logan and "Jim" Kearns, a contractor, were paroled as witnesses.

AN EVENING WORLD reporter Train made a statement. He was reticent to others. He is a tall, well-built, handsome man of forty years, with a clear-cut face, blond mustache and long black hair.

The morning paper told me the wrong in saying I was a crook, three-card monte man and gambler. I have been a broker for years and kept a book shop till about a year ago. I was a very honest man.

Leary had a room at Billy Train's, at 40 University place. He had a hotel at Coney Island, and his wife, "Red Kate" Gorman, an ex-shoemaker, has a room house at Red Hook. She will take the remains, after the autopsy, for burial.

MR. MUGFORD'S UNIQUE REASONS.
He Sues Mrs. Jane Nerby Merely to Vindicate the Sterner Sex.

Henry L. Muford, of Brooklyn, who has sued Jane Nerby for $10,000 for breach of promise of marriage, said this morning to an EVENING WORLD reporter: "I am a retired
drug merchant, having given up business a short time ago after conducting it for over twenty years."

"I first met Miss Nerby in February of
the present year. She advertised in a matrimonial paper for a husband and I answered
it."

"One Sunday I went to church. When I returned to my home I found her there with a letter which she said would give me back my
freedom. She had made all arrangements
for the wedding, and she was to take place Friday of the present year."

"As I did not propose to her, I didn't see
why she should want to relieve me of any money. When I suggested that we postpone the wedding she declined, at the same
time saying she had received a communication from her deceased husband commanding
her to marry me."

Mr. Muford further said that he brought
the suit merely to show that the sterner sex's affections were not to be trifled with in safety.

On Strike in Yonkers.
YONKERS, April 24.—The men and boys employed
as stokers in E. M. Connet's factory in this city struck to-day on account of a reduction in wages.

The other hands in the factory are in sympathy with the strikers, and it is thought that a general strike among the hands under the trouble is at hand.

Talked of by Workmen.
Delegate Wackenhelm, of the Gotham Association of Knife-cutters, presided at the meeting of the Clothing Trades Section, for the reason that they are interested parties in the differences between the Washington Association and the Sawworkers' Protective Union.

The grievance complained of by the Sawworkers'
Protective Union against the Washington Association of Knife-cutters is that the latter have refused to recognize the cards of the former, his being submitted to the Grievance Committee of the Clothing Trades Section.

The United Clothing Cutters entered a protest
last night against the submission of the Benevolent
and Protective Association of Garment Cutters to
the Grievance Committee of the Clothing Trades Section, on the ground that the members composing it were expelled from the first mentioned organization.

The Quotations.
Cable, Apr. 24.—The following are the quotations
for the day:

Backed Bucket Shops and Failed.

(OFFICIAL TO THE WORLD.)

PHILADELPHIA, Pa., April 24.—The Keystone Investment Company suspended payment to-day. The company has had direct communication with the New York Consolidated Exchange, and has acted as a backer for "bucket" shops in New York, New Orleans, St. Louis, Baltimore and Washington. The liabilities of the company are placed at $50,000. The company was aided in business through six or seven agencies in the city, allowing the brokers a certain commission and the company a profit on the commission and being responsible for the losses of its agents. There were three stockholders constituting the company, Dr. J. D. Dwyer, president, the company. They were President H. H. Kendall, Secretary Frank Brown and Treasurer W. H. Conn.

Good News for Canal Boatmen.

(OFFICIAL TO THE WORLD.)

ALBANY, April 24.—The McElroy Elevator bill was passed in the Assembly to-day after a fight of an hour and a half by a vote of 79 to 51. It reduces the charge for elevating, receiving and discharging grain to 10 cents per bushel, and fixes a actual cost as the price for handling by floating and stationary elevators in training or shovelling to the pier when unloading a trimming cargo when loading. The canal boatmen will undoubtedly be pleased to hear the news.

Pearl Estifage Defeated in Court.

Justice Clancy has decided in favor of the plaintiff in the suit brought by Mary C. Bennan against Pearl Estifage Yard, the actress, to recover $100.42 for board, lodging and borrowed money. At the trial last Friday the defence was that Mrs. Bennan's suit was for a dress, a pair of shoes and wearing apparel, for which the plaintiff had assumed to be responsible. Justice Clancy said that the defence was no defence as Mrs. Bennan was not responsible for the wrong-using of others.

Our Fire Chiefs' Series.

"Worthy of Promotion," written by Assistant Chief Hugh Bonner, will begin in THE EVENING WORLD to-morrow.

MAN wants out little here below.
But he wants that little strong.

It is especially true of a piglet. The average man or woman is a piglet. He is a piglet from a piglet, not when taken away it is to be prompt, sure and effective. Dr. FERRIS' PLEASANT PURGATIVE PILLS are the only pills that are taken in point of efficiency, and yet their action is totally free from any unpleasant symptoms or after-effects. Purely vegetable, perfectly harmless.